Raleigh, N. C., June 3.—Without any contest Lee S. Overman will be renominated for the United States Senate and Edward L. Travis for member of the North Carolina Corporation Commission at the State Democratic Convention, which meets here at noon to-morrow. Beyond this the nomination of seven Superior Court Judges, already made, will be confirmed.

The only matter in doubt is as to platform. The effort will be made to have a State-wide legalized primary and other progressive measures indorsed, and the outlook is for some opposition to these. Friends of progressive measures express their confidence in putting through these measures as a demand in the platform. F. J. Rouse, of Kinston, will be the temporary chairman, and will make the keynote speech.

Exercises on Friday will be conducted by Bishop Gibson.
